Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach nor suggest either alone or in combination, all the limitations of the amended independent claims of the current invention, particularly an interrupt service routine(start function) calling a target function when a read value corresponds to a reference value that corresponds to a predetermined time, wherein the start function calling the target function initiates said execution of the target function.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
